The Evolution of Xcellence Continues

- New Ergonomic Design—The most comfortable pipettor you ever laid a hand on
- New Power Source for Uninterrupted Extended Operation—Can be charged while in use
- New Ultra Quiet Precision Pump—Great control for aspiration or dispensing

The new Drummond Pipet-Aid XP2 advances the industry standards for pipetting control, comfort, and convenience. Building on the years of experience of providing state-of-the-art tools that make your job in the laboratory safer, easier, and more convenient, the Pipet-Aid XP2 delivers more. The ergonomic design is more comfortable to handle. The new power source enables more convenient extended operation and the new more powerful pump provides great control and quieter operations. The unit is supplied complete with a power supply/charger, 4 extra filters, and a removable stand.
